On the cover

Sgt. Derek Pelletier of Boston Mass., an engineer from B Company, 11th Engineer Battalion, part of Taskforce 2-7 Infantry Battalion waves combat convoys through lane six of the berm separating Kuwait and Iraq Friday morning, March 21st 2003, as America began its attack on Saddam's regime. Pelletier's unit worked though the night to reduce the berm. He continued to wave the flag for most of the day as thousands of vehicles from the 3rd Infantry Division passed.

Veterans Benefits

WE ARE HERE
TO HELP
YOU

The Office of Financial Aid and Veterans Affairs would like to thank you for your interest in attending Randolph Community College. The faculty and staff of Randolph Community College have always embraced our military service members and their families. Today, we continue to strengthen the relationship while striving to meet the educational needs of this growing and valuable part of our community. In commitment to our military families, Randolph Community College is constantly rising to the challenge of tailoring our academic programs to assist them in achieving their personal and career goals.

We welcome all members of the military and we thank them for their service to our country.

What's Required?

Enrollment Requirements

To be eligible for educational benefits, you must be enrolled in an approved curriculum, taking only those courses required for graduation in the chosen curriculum. You must also submit and complete all required documents to the VA Certifying Official on our campus and maintain Satisfactory Academic Progress while enrolled at Randolph Community College. For more detailed information about the enrollment process, please visit our Web site at www.randolph.edu/fin_aid/vet_affairs.php or contact the VA Certifying Official.

Counseling and Testing

Randolph Community College has a Counseling and Testing Center located on in campus in the Student Services Center. Professionally trained counselors are available to assist students at Randolph Community College with academic/educational, occupational, and personal concerns.

Counseling services are available during the College's day and evening operating hours, except weekends, and may be used by applicants and the general community, as well as by current and former students. Those in need of counseling services are encouraged to contact a member of the counseling staff. Individual appointments are recommended and most often can be made at a time convenient to the student. For more information or to make an appointment, please call 336-633-0200 or visit <http://www.randolph.edu/counseling.php>.
