

RANDOLPH COMMUNITY COLLEGE HAS THREE WAYS FOR YOU TO EARN YOUR HIGH SCHOOL EQUIVALENCY DIPLOMA:

General Education Development Test

Four Tests

➔ Subject Areas:

-  Language Arts 155 Minutes
(Combined Reading & Writing)
-  Science 95 Minutes
-  Social Studies 75 Minutes
-  Mathematics 120 Minutes

Test Payable to GED see below:

-  $26 per subject test
-  $104 for full exam battery
-  Pay as you test each module
-  Receive a free retake per module

There is a 60-day waiting period after the second retake in a subject test (between every test after the third attempt).

Create an account to schedule and pay for the GED by visiting www.GED.com or call GED Assistance at 1-877-392-6433.

High School Equivalency Test

Five Tests

➔ Subject Areas:

-  Language Arts 65 Minutes
(Reading)
-  Language Arts 120 Minutes
(Writing)
-  Science 80 Minutes
-  Social Studies 70 Minutes
-  Mathematics 90 Minutes

Test Payable to HiSET see below:

-  Paper Based Test - $15
-  $75 for full exam Paper Based battery
-  Computer Based Test - $10.75
-  $53.75 for full exam Computer Based Test
-  Pay as you test each module
-  Receive two free retakes per module

You may only test three times in each subject within a calendar year. After you've tested three times, then you will have to wait to retest the next year.

Create an account to schedule and pay for the HiSET by visiting hiset.ets.org or call Customer Service at 1-855-694-4738 between 8 a.m. - 11 p.m. Eastern Time.

Multiple Pathways to High School Equivalency Diploma Program

The student is required to demonstrate high school-level competencies in the five selected content areas:

-  English Language Arts/Literacy
-  Mathematics
-  Science
-  Social Studies
-  Technology

Elements to Determinate credit:

-  High School Courses
-  Adult High School Courses
-  High School Equivalency Assessments (GED/HiSET/STAC)
-  BSP Transition Courses
-  Northstar Certification

Once a student has satisfactorily completed all requirements, a high school equivalency diploma will be awarded through the N.C. State Board of Community Colleges.

MPHSE is only available to active RCC students. Contact the College and Career Readiness front desk at 336-633-0106 for more information.