

Collision Repair offers high-demand careers. In 2023, the national average salary for Automotive Repair and Maintenance reached $55,940 — showing steady industry growth.

Begin your journey by enrolling in Randolph Community College's Collision Repair and Refinishing Technology program!

JOB OPPORTUNITIES

---

Are you passionate about repairing automobiles and driven by hands-on technology? Discover how Collision Repair and Refinishing Technology can launch your career in a high-demand, fast-evolving industry!

- Top Earners: Experienced technicians can make up to $75,000–$80,000 per year.
- Job Demand: 13,900 job openings per year projected for collision repair nationwide (2023–2033).
- Tech-Driven: Advanced tools like virtual and augmented reality are reshaping the field.
- High Demand: There's a shortage of trained technicians — creating opportunity for new talent.

EARN YOUR
COLLISION REPAIR
& REFINISHING TECHNOLOGY
DEGREE

For more information, email Morgen English at mfenglish@randolph.edu
or call 336-633-0224