

Computer-Integrated Machining offers a wide range of rewarding and specialized career opportunities, with professionals in North Carolina earning a median salary of approximately $62,460.

Begin your journey by enrolling in Randolph Community College's Computer-Integrated Machining program!

LEARN COMPUTER INTEGRATED MACHINING WITH RCC

Are you passionate about design, technology, and making things with precision? This program equips you for a range of skilled roles in high-tech machine shops and manufacturing:

- Work from concept to finished product in RCC's Gene Haas Computer-Integrated Machining institute.
- Free college through the Apprenticeship Randolph program to start earning while learning.
- Each graduate earned a 20-year ROI of $5.80 for every dollar invested (2019-20).
- Industry accredited gear to prepare students for the workforce.

*Schedule
a tour!*

EARN YOUR COMPUTER INTEGRATED MACHINING
DEGREE

For more information, email Morgen English at mfenglish@randolph.edu
or call 336-633-0224