

Make a difference when it matters most. This program equips compassionate individuals with the skills to become trusted advocates in behavioral and recovery services.

Begin your journey by enrolling in Randolph Community College's Social and Human Services Technology/Addiction and Recovery Studies program!

JOB OPPORTUNITIES

Are you driven to help people rebuild their lives and navigate personal challenges with empathy and professionalism? Through online instruction and fieldwork, you'll step into roles where you make a real impact.

Substance Abuse Counselor

Median Income: $35–50K (typical for similar roles in NC)

DWI Interventionist / Case Manager

Median Income: $40–55K

Residential Facility Counselor / Halfway House Worker

Median Income: $34–48K

Substance Abuse Prevention & Education Specialist

Median Income: $36–52K

*Schedule
a tour!*

EARN YOUR SOCIAL AND HUMAN SERVICES
TECHNOLOGY/ADDICTION AND RECOVERY STUDIES
DEGREE

For more information, email Morgen English at mfenglish@randolph.edu
or call 336-633-0224